FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Revera Announces Appointment of Terrance Royer to the Board of Directors

TORONTO, Canada, October 14, 2014 – Revera Inc., a leading provider of seniors' accommodation, care and services, today announced the appointment of Terrance Royer as a member of its Board of Directors.

"We welcome Terrance to the Board and look forward to working with him," said Neil Cunningham, Chair of Revera's Board of Directors. "As the former Chair and President of one of North America's leading hotel management and franchising companies, he has a deep-rooted understanding of hospitality services."

Mr. Royer has been an influential leader and an active member in the hospitality industry for more than 35 years. As one of the founders of Royco Hotels & Resorts, he grew the company in Canada, the U.S. and abroad through various mergers and acquisitions as well as creative joint ventures. During that time he also co-founded the Canadian Institute of Tourism (Conference Board of Canada), and served on for-profit and not-for-profit Boards in various capacities, including as Chair. Mr. Royer is currently an active board member at Corus Entertainment Inc. and is Chairman Emeritus of the University of Lethbridge. His awards include the Queen's Jubilee Medal for Service to the Citizens of Canada and the Centennial Medal for Citizenship by the province of Alberta.

"Terrance built a successful hotel chain in Canada and the U.S. by focusing on customer service," said Thomas Wellner, President and CEO, Revera Inc. "This is just as key a focus in the provision of accommodation, care and services for seniors. We know that Terrance's ability to recognize and capitalize on trends in hospitality services will be a tremendous support to Revera as we continue to strengthen our operations in Canada and the U.S."
