

Revera Expands with Alberta Retirement Acquisitions

Company partners with Welltower Inc. to acquire three premium retirement communities

TORONTO, ON, October 2, 2015 – Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator and investor in senior living, today announced it has expanded its operations in Alberta through the acquisition of three retirement communities with joint-venture partner Welltower Inc. The communities will be managed by Revera.

“Identifying and maximizing opportunities in markets across Canada and internationally is an important part of our business strategy,” says Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera. “Our acquisitions in Alberta will help us to grow our leadership position, and expand on the options for older adults in that market. We are also pleased to continue strengthening our partnership with Welltower through our joint venture.”

Previously operated by Symphony Senior Living, these three communities will now operate under the Revera brand. Revera currently operates 17 sites in Alberta, serving more than 2,000 seniors.

Revera’s newly-acquired senior living communities in Alberta include:

- Aspen Ridge, Red Deer
- Inglewood, Red Deer
- Evergreen, Calgary
