

Revera Inc. Acquires Kitchener Retirement Community Company welcomes newly-named Briarfield Gardens

TORONTO, ON, October 4, 2016 – Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator and investor in senior living, today announced the acquisition of Emmanuel Village retirement residence in Kitchener, Ontario. The independent living community of 102 apartment-style suites has been renamed ‘Briarfield Gardens’ in recognition of its beautifully landscaped surroundings, and will be managed by Revera.

“We are thrilled to welcome Briarfield Gardens residents and employees into the Revera family,” says Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO. “The Kitchener-Waterloo region is a dynamic part of the province, and we are pleased to expand on the options for older adults in the area. The addition of this vibrant community to our network marks an important milestone in our strategy to grow, innovate and lead, as we continue to build our presence in the senior living sector.”

With the addition of Briarfield Gardens to Revera’s retirement portfolio, the company owns and operates 64 retirement communities in Ontario, and 98 across Canada.

About Revera

Revera is a leading owner, operator and investor in the senior living sector. Through its portfolio of partnerships, Revera owns or operates more than 500 properties across Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom, serving more than 50,000 seniors. The company offers seniors’ apartments, independent living, assisted living, memory care, and long term care. With approximately 45,000 employees dedicated to providing exceptional care and service, Revera is helping seniors live life to the fullest. Through Age is More, Revera is committed to challenging ageism, the company’s social cause of choice. Find out more at ReveraLiving.com, Facebook.com/ReveraInc or on Twitter @Revera Inc.

-30-

For further information, please contact:

Maia Doytcheva
Revera Inc.
(289) 360-1157
maia.doytcheva@reveraliving.com

