

Revera Inc. Acquires Burlington Retirement Community

MISSISSAUGA, Canada, June 1, 2017 – Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator and investor in senior living, today announced the acquisition of The Williamsburg Uptown retirement community in Burlington, Ontario, which has been renamed “The Williamsburg.” The community boasts a range of modern amenities and 117 luxury units accommodating independent and assisted living.

“The Williamsburg is a unique and vibrant community, and we are thrilled to welcome its residents and employees to the Revera family,” says Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO, Revera Inc. “The addition of this community to our retirement portfolio will allow us to strengthen Revera’s presence in a key market and marks an important milestone in our strategy to grow, innovate and lead in the senior living sector.”

With the addition of The Williamsburg to Revera’s retirement portfolio, the company owns and operates 65 retirement communities in Ontario, and 99 across Canada.
