REVERA AND AXIUM INFRASTRUCTURE FORM A JOINT VENTURE TO SHARE OWNERSHIP OF 32 LONG TERM CARE HOMES

Toronto (April 30, 2018) – Revera Inc. (“Revera”) and Axium Infrastructure (“Axium”) are pleased to announce the completion of a joint venture transaction to share ownership of 32 of Revera’s long term care homes in Ontario, Alberta, Manitoba and British Columbia.

Axium owns a 75% equity interest in the joint venture, while Revera retains a 25% equity interest and will continue to operate the homes. Both partners are committed to ensuring that the residents and employees of these 32 long term care communities benefit from the best care and environments possible. Additional homes may be added to the partnership over time.

“We are very pleased to enter into this joint venture with Revera, a leading player in the Canadian long term care sector” said Stéphane Mailhot, President and Chief Operating Officer of Axium. “This transaction is consistent with Axium’s ongoing strategy to invest alongside strong strategic partners in high-quality assets providing essential services to the community” added Mr. Mailhot.

“Axium, as a buy and hold investor with a track record of successful partnerships, is an ideal partner for Revera,” said Thomas Wellner, President and Chief Executive Officer of Revera. “We are delighted that this joint venture supports our company’s commitment to the future of long term care”.

BMO Capital Markets acted as financial advisor and Torys LLP acted as legal advisor to Axium on the transaction. Brookfield Financial and CIBC Capital Markets acted as financial advisors and Goodmans LLP acted as legal advisor to Revera on the transaction.
