

Revera Appoints Janice Lin as Chief Investment Officer

Company further strengthens leadership to meet strategic mandate to grow, innovate and lead.

MISSISSAUGA, Canada – June 17, 2020 – Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator, developer and investor in the senior living sector, is pleased to announce the appointment of Janice Lin to the role of Chief Investment Officer (CIO), effective June 29th, 2020. In this global role, Ms. Lin will provide leadership, oversight, and direction for the company’s growing global Investment Management, Property Development, and Asset Management priorities.

Jim Hardy, the company’s current CIO and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), announced his intention to retire at the end of 2021; with the appointment of Ms. Lin, he will assume the role of Chief Corporate Development Officer and CFO. The two leaders will work closely together and with the broader Revera team to advance the company’s 2025 strategy to grow its enterprise value, innovate for healthier aging, and lead in conversations about aging and delivering excellence.

“We are delighted to welcome Janice to Revera,” said Mr. Wellner. “We’ve got an ambitious property and investment agenda, a growing network of best-in-class capital and development partners, as well as a drive to expand our geographic footprint through growth in key markets. Her wealth of experience in Canada and the U.S. will be invaluable as we navigate these waters.”

“She is also coming on board at a crucial time for the senior living sector, which has an unprecedented opportunity and responsibility to learn from the current global crisis and generate new ways of thinking about seniors’ housing,” he added.

Ms. Lin was most recently the Senior Principal, Direct Private Equity and Director, Real Estate Investments, US Multifamily, Student Housing and Industrial Portfolios at the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board. She also served as Acquisitions Assistant Vice President at Canyon Capital for the Canyon Johnson Urban Funds in Los Angeles. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from Harvard Business School.

“I am excited to be joining Revera, a recognized leader in this dynamic sector and a company that is committed to bringing state-of-the-art, purpose-built seniors living to more people, and to championing innovation in aging,” said Ms. Lin. “I’m looking forward to being a part of a company with such a compelling purpose and future.”
