

Revera Opens The Scenic Grande Retirement Residence in Calgary
State-of-the-art home offers seniors independence and luxury amenities

TORONTO, June 15, 2021 – Revera, a leading owner, operator, developer and investor in the senior living sector welcomed residents this spring to its newest retirement residence, The Scenic Grande, a beautiful state-of-the-art lifestyle residence in Calgary, Alberta.

Situated in the heart of the welcoming community of Scenic Acres in northwest Calgary, named for its panoramic views of the Bow Valley corridor, the Paskapoo Slopes and the Rocky Mountains, The Scenic Grande offers state-of-the-art accommodations and luxury amenities.

“Revera is proud to meet the evolving needs of older adults through our retirement residences. The Scenic Grande offers endless choices and possibilities for senior living,” said Thomas Wellner, President and CEO, Revera. “It has quickly grown into a thriving, vibrant community of active seniors in Calgary.”

The Scenic Grande offers a variety of recreation programs, designed using Revera’s Dimensions of Wellness holistic approach to recreation. Residents are encouraged to support their health goals, socialize with fellow residents and explore their passions.

State-of-the-art amenities at The Scenic Grande include a saltwater swimming pool, a virtual golf simulator, an art studio, wine cellar, fitness centre, games room and a theatre. The residence has three dining halls, a pub and a bistro to give residents flexible culinary options.

Revera’s personalized care plans create an opportunity for both independence and choice through tailored care plans and programs.

Residents benefit from access to a range of personalized health and wellness services and facilities designed to cater to evolving needs. This includes Revera’s innovative Reflections Memory Care Program which offers specialized, individualized care and support for residents experiencing memory loss.

“The Scenic Grande is a beautiful addition to Revera’s retirement living options in Calgary,” said John Beaney, Senior Vice President, Retirement, Revera. “It’s a welcoming community that allows seniors to do more of what they want. There is something for everyone at The Scenic Grande.”
