JOINT VENTURE OF REVERA INC. AND AXIUM INFRASTRUCTURE EXPANDS WITH ACQUISITION OF ARBOUR HEIGHTS LONG TERM CARE HOME IN KINGSTON, ONTARIO

Toronto (July 3, 2019) – Revera Inc. (“Revera”) and Axium Infrastructure (“Axium”) are pleased to announce the close of the partners’ joint venture acquisition of Arbour Heights, a 174-bed, A-class Long Term Care Home in Kingston, Ontario. This is the first external acquisition for the joint venture, which already co-owns 35 of Revera’s long term care homes in Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba.

“We are delighted to be expanding our successful joint venture partnership with Axium, which is a key capital partner for Revera’s long term care division,” said Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera. “The addition of Arbour Heights contributes to our strategy to grow, innovate and lead, giving us an exceptional, modern home to add to our portfolio.”

“We are very pleased to welcome Arbour Heights into our joint venture with Revera, a leading player in the Canadian long term care sector” said Stéphane Mailhot, President and Chief Operating Officer of Axium. “This transaction is consistent with Axium’s ongoing strategy to invest alongside high-quality partners in core infrastructure assets providing essential services to the community” added Mr. Mailhot.
